- "Brian R. King": the owner of the membership site and the individual with the right to seek legal action if a member breaches any of the Terms and Conditions.
- "Us": Brian R. King and the other individuals (his team members) working alongside him to serve the EMPOWER community.

Obligations of 1-on-1 Coaching Clients

Payments

1. Payments can be made via PayPal and will continue to occur on a monthly basis unless you choose to cancel with 30 days notice.

2. Should there be an issue with your payments and you are unable to make them, we reserve the right to suspend your access to all of the membership resources until you have submitted all outstanding fees. Not being able to pay outstanding monthly fees does not mean you can simply stop paying. The program fees will be cleared in a timeframe agreed upon by you and Brian R. King, until you cover all the necessary payments. After this is done, it will be agreed by the same parties whether you can keep your membership or not. Interest may occur for late payments.

3. Your program fee will remain the same throughout your membership. Should you choose to discontinue services, and begin again at a later date. You will be required to pay any increased rate.

4. All prepaid sessions (if applicable) are to be used during each 30 day pay period. Hours do not roll over to the next month. Time can be used in 30 or 60 min increments. You can establish a recurring day and time with Brian, or schedule when you feel the need.

4. Text messages sent by Member to Brian R. King will be responded to in 24 hours or less.

It's important to note that Brian R. King doesn't offer crisis management. It's important to have a professional to support you if a crisis is an issue for you.

Membership Obligations for the EMPOWER Community

1. When you apply to join EMPOWER (after your 1 FREE month), you're not automatically accepted. Your application will be reviewed and your personal needs will be considered along with how they balance with the needs of the community. The better the balance the better the experience for everyone.
2. Being a part of The EMPOWER Community doesn't require but encourages a minimum 6-month commitment. This is because change takes time and people can be tempted to withdraw when dealing with difficult issues. This commitment helps keep you in the game.
3. If you decide to cancel your membership, you need to do so with a written notice sent to our email associated with your membership minimum 30 days before your next payment date. Canceling your membership from your account does not mean you will stop being charged. We will cancel your membership on the date when your next recurring payment would have been made and revoke your access from the membership site and Discord channel

4. We have a 14-day money-back guarantee, afterward, no refunds can be given on membership fees that have already been paid – whether they have been paid monthly or yearly. This does not apply to you if you conduct yourself in a way that goes against these terms and conditions (e.g. insult Brian R. King or any of the other members in a private, semi-private or public space; if you create a toxic or unsafe environment, act in any other way that Brian sees as unfit for an EMPOWER member within your first 14 days. In this scenario you are not entitled to a refund of your membership fee even if you're within the 14-day money-back guarantee.) If you enter the program at a discounted rate, you may keep that rate as long as your payments continue to be made without interruption. If you stop payment at any time, then decide to return to the program. Any price increases that have occurred will apply.
5. You get to keep all bonuses regardless of when you cancel your membership.
6. If you are evicted from the membership by Brian R. King (the owner) for a legitimate reason (see below) before your membership has officially expired, you are not entitled to a refund on any membership fees that have been paid for this duration.

Legitimate reasons include:

- Publicly speaking negatively about the community, Brian R. King or any of the members;
